At the close of the festivities held in the Old Town Hall, 50 years ago tonight, the records inform us the Sir Knights and Ladies, "dispersed in peace and harmony, closing with the familiar song, "Auld Lang Syne,"

Should auld acquaintance be forgot	And there's a hand, my trusty frien',
And never brought to min'	And gie's a hand o' thine;
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,	For we'll tak' a cup of kindness yet,
And days of o' lang syne?	For auld lang syne.
For auld lang syne, my dear,	For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,	For auld lang syne,
We'll tak' a cup of kindness yet,	We'll take a cup of kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.	For auld lang syne.

Historical Sketch

Haverhill Commandery

NOVEMBER 19, 1913 marks the fiftieth anniversary of one of most significant days in the annals of Haverhill Commandery, the nineteenth day of November 1863, when Most Eminent Sir William S. Gardnier, Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, placed in the hands of Sir Knight George Wingate Chase, our first Eminent Commander, the Charter of Haverhill Commandery.

It is a pleasure to inscribe here, as charter members, the names of the eleven Sir Knights who were most instrumental in laying the foundations of our institution, and who were charged with its care and preservation.

The names of those Sir Knights whom we wish to honor are:

GEORGE W. CHASE	JOHN P. RANDALL
JAMES E. GALE	GEORGE W. CAMPBELL
GEORGE H. HOYT	DANIEL FITTS
CHARLES W. CHASE	FRANK C. SWAN
CALVIN HOW	FRANCIS J. STEVENS
CHARLES R. EVANS

During the years that have intervened since the charter was granted Haverhill Commandery has enjoyed a marked degree of prosperity and has grown rapidly in members until today it has a membership list of exactly three hundred Sir Knights, all of whom will undoubtedly be interested to know something of the conditions which led up to the founding of the institution, as well as some of the notable events which have transpired during its existence.

The History of the Commandery may be said to date back to the summer and autumn of 1857, when George W. George, Rufus T. Slocumb, Roland H. Macey, George T. Lancaster, Calvin How, James E. Gale, Frank C. Swan, Alfred G. Taggart, Ambrose L. Kimball, George H. Hoyt, John P. Randall, Charles W. Chase, and Francis J. Stevens were created Knights Templar in Newburyport Encampment of Knights Templar, as Commanderies were then termed.

Sir Knight George Wingate Chase who had already received the orders of Knighthood in Maine, and who was afterwards to be chosen the First Eminent Commander of Haverhill Commandery, at that time became a member of Newburyport Commandery.

The work of constituting new Commanderies was then progressing very rapidly throughout New England, and while it was at first proposed to petition the Grand Commandery for permission to hold alternate assemblies, or conclaves, in Newburyport and Haverhill, yet, this plan was soon found to be impracticable, and, on account of dissensions arising all but one or two of the Haverhill Sir Knights withdrew from Newburyport Commandery.

It is interesting to know that owing to the unfortunate conditions, (financial and otherwise,) that prevailed throughout the length and breadth of our country during the early years of the Civil war, Newburyport Commandery found it desirable to give up its Charter, in October 1862, and did not resume it until sometime after the close of that memorable struggle.

It is quite evident however that interest in the rites and ceremonies of the Order of the Temple remained keenly alive, and the hope that Haverhill should one day have an active and thriving Commandery of Knights Templar was undoubtedly fondly cherished in the hearts of many of the members of our Masonic Fraternities.

On April 10th, 1863, at the close of a meeting of Pentucket Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, this hope found expression, when several of the companions present urged Sir Knights James E. Gale, John P. Randall, George W. Chase, and Francis J. Stevens, to petition the Grand Commandery for permission to organize a Commandery of Knights Templar in Haverhill.

The companions appeared to be very much in earnest, and after a few moments consultation the Sir Knights informed them that if ten applications for the order could be procured they would at once comply with their request, and report progress at the next convocation of the Chapter.

Ten companions promptly took them at their word, and accordingly Sir Knight Francis J. Stevens was authorized to communicate with the Grand Encampment of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, to ascertain what steps should be taken to secure the necessary dispensation.

Sir Knight Solon Thornton, the Eminent Grand Recorder, responded at once to Sir Knight Stevens' communication, and in a most encouraging manner commended the Sir Knights of Haverhill upon their enterprise. He informed them that the next meeting of the Grand Commandery would be held in May (1863) at which time their petition could be placed before it, provided, there were nine petitioners, and provided also, consent was first obtained from Pilgrim Commandery of Lowell, which at that time exercised jurisdiction over the entire Merrimac Valley (it being remembered that Newburyport Commandery had not yet resumed its Charter.)

The same warm hearted and generous spirit, which so eminently characterizes Pilgrim Commandery today was in evidence fifty years ago and their consent was readily obtained, although they stipulated that they should retain jurisdiction over all the territory they had previously held, as far as the western boundary line of the town of Haverhill.

The fulfillment of the hopes of the little company of Sir Knights of Haverhill being now practically assured, it will undoubtedly be of interest to know that the first meeting to arrange the details of the organization of the new Commandery, was held at the drug store of Sir Knight Frank C. Swan on Main Street, at which time Sir Knight George Wingate Chase was chosen to be the first Eminent Commander.

The date of the First Conclave of the Commandery unfortunately was omitted from the records, but it appears to have been held on May 13th, 1863, as the Charter, which had been duly applied for, was granted on November 19th, to take rank and precedence from the 13th day of May, 1863. At this Conclave the fee for membership in the Commandery was fixed at thirty dollars.

The Second Conclave of the Commandery was held on May 20th, 1863, at which time Dudley Porter, Wm. A. Brooks, Wm. B. Eaton, John R. Prescott, Daniel Fitts, Samuel S. Hills, Nathaniel K. Johnson, Thadeus Bullen, Wm. H. Smith, George Poor, A. G. Bradley, Alvah Whittier, L. C. Wadleigh, Edmund Kimball, Reverend C. H. Seymour, David B. Tenney, and Charles R. Evans, were elected to receive the Orders.

The Third Conclave was held on June 11th, 1863, at which John Anderson was elected to receive the Degrees, and the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross was conferred upon him and upon the Companions above mentioned. At this conclave the dispensation was received from the Grand Encampment and was read by the Recorder.

On July 21st of the same year, the regulation Black and White Regalia was adopted. On September 15th a committee was given full powers to purchase Officer's Jewels. On October 6th the Seal of Haverhill Commandery was adopted, and on November 13th the first code of By-laws was adopted.

November 19th, 1863, is a memorable day in the History of Haverhill Commandery, for this day marks the arrival of the Charter and the Public Installation of its first Officers by Most Eminent Sir William S. Gardiner, Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, at the old Masonic Hall on Fleet Street.

The First Organization consisted of the following Officers:

Eminent Commander	SIR GEORGE WINGATE CHASE
Generalissimo	SIR CHARLES W. CHASE
Captain General	SIR JOHN P. RANDALL
Prelate	SIR C. H. SEYMOUR
Senior Warden	SIR FRANCIS J. STEVENS
Junior Warden	SIR JAMES E. GALE
Treasurer	SIR GEORGE S. CHASE
Recorder	SIR WM. B. EATON
Standard Bearer	SIR LEVI C. WADLEIGH
Sword Bearer	SIR GEORGE H. HOYT
Warder	SIR DAVID B. TENNEY
Captains of the Guards	{ SIR B. F. LEIGHTON SIR J. R. PRESCOTT SIR DANIEL FITTS
Armorer	SIR JOHN B. RICHARDSON
Sentinel	SIR ALBERT G. BRADLEY

After the Installation of the officers by the Most Eminent Grand Master, the Reverend C. H. Seymour, in behalf of Sir Knights James E. Gale, Charles W. Chase, and John Anderson, presented the Commandery with a beautiful street banner. At the conclusion of the Ceremonies in the Temple a banquet was served in the Old Town Hall by J. N. Willett, followed by speeches by the Most Eminent Grand Master and other distinguished Sir Knights, which were thoroughly enjoyed, and in the words of the original record,—“At twelve o'clock P. M. the assembly dispersed in peace and harmony, closing with the familiar song “Auld Lang Syne”.

The joyous and happy occasions which marked the first conclaves of the Commandery, however were soon to be enshrouded in gloom, for April 21st, 1864 witnessed the first public funeral service held by the Commandery, when Sir John Anderson was laid at rest with the full Templar Service, Merrimack Lodge being under the escort of the Commandery.

It may be interesting at this time to add a few brief extracts from the records of the Commandery, and we note that on June 24th, 1864, the first celebration of St. John's Day was observed. The Commandery parading the principal streets of Haverhill, after which festivities were indulged in at Kenoza Lake during the afternoon.

We find it recorded that on October 18th, 1864, Haverhill Commandery was signally honored by having its Officers installed by Most Eminent Benjamin B. French, Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America.

That a due consideration for the feelings of others, early formed a part of the creed of the Sir Knights of our order, is evidenced by the action which we find solemnly recorded under date of May 9, 1865.

Voted: “That each Sir Knight be required to purchase a pair of slippers to be used while drilling.”

Ever mindful of impressing upon the Sir Knights the desirability of conforming to the regulations of the organization it was Voted on March 13, 1866:

“That no Sir Knight having a uniform should appear at any meeting of the Commandery without the proper regalia, except he be excused by the Eminent Commander or Captain General.”

On June 24, 1873, Haverhill Commandery acting as escort to Merrimack and Saggahew Lodges, A. F. & A. M. assisted in the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the present Masonic Temple by Sereno Dwight Nickerson, Grand Master of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Masons of Massachusetts.

The changing of the regalia of the Sir Knights from silver to gold was authorized by vote of the Commandery on September 8, 1874.

The books of the recorder containing the records of the Conclaves of the Commandery from June 8, 1875, to February 17, 1882 inclusive were destroyed by the great fire of February 17-18, 1882.

During the thirty odd years that have transpired since that unfortunate occurrence, the History of the Commandery has been fully and carefully preserved by the recorder, and the records are open to the inspection of any Sir Knight who may care to peruse them, but the record of the friendships made within the walls of the asylum, and the influence of the associations formed therein are invisibly but indelibly written into the characters of its members, there to make a deep and lasting impression upon their lives and future conduct; and, while it is not possible for any Sir Knight, this side the Vale, to arrive at that state of perfection indicated by the ideals of Knight Templarism, yet, each may strive to be what all the world expects, and what Ella Wheeler Wilcox has so beautifully expressed in her poem,—

"Worthy the name; Sir Knight"

"Sir Knight of the world's oldest order,
Sir Knight of the army of God,
You have crossed the strange mystical border,
The ground floor of truth you have trod,
You have entered the sanctum sanctorum,
Which leads to the temple above;
Where you came as a stone, and a Christ-chosen one,
In the Kingdom of Friendship and Love.
As you stand in this new realm of beauty,
Where each man you meet is your friend,
Think not that your promise of duty,
In hall or asylum shall end,
Outside in the great world of pleasure,
Beyond, in the clamor of trade,
In the battle of life and its coarse daily strife,
Remember the vows you have made.
Your service, majestic and solemn,
Your symbols, suggestive and sweet,
Your uniformed phalanx in column,
On gala days marching the street,
Your sword and your plume and your helmet,
Your secrets hid from the world's sight,
These things are small, lesser part of the all
Which are needed to form the true Knight.
Sir Knight, have you pondered the meaning
Of all you have heard and been told,

Have you strengthened your heart for its weaning
From vices and faults loved of old?
Will you honor in hours of temptation
Your promises noble and grand,
Will your spirit be strong to do battle with wrong,
And, having done all to stand?
Will you ever be true to a brother
In actions as well as in creed?
Will you stand by his side as no other
Could stand in the hour of his need?
Will you boldly defend him from peril
And lift from him poverty's curse?
Will your promise of aid, which you willingly make
Reach down from your lips to your purse?
The world's battlefield is before you;
Let wisdom walk close by your side,
Let faith spread her snowy wings o'er you,
Let truth be your comrade and guide;
Let Fortitude, Justice and Mercy,
Direct all your conduct aright,
And, let each word and act tell to men the proud fact,
You are worthy the name Sir Knight."
